

Speakers – Ryan & January Donovan

Keynote Morning Talk:

Life by Design with God and for God

We are called to be creators with our Lord and to design a life that bears witness to truth, beauty, goodness, and ultimately, a living testimony of the Gospel. Ryan and January will provide some practical details on how together they design their life, their marriage, their family, their careers, and their spiritual life, while continually moving forward in their imperfect journey towards God. They will break down the mindset and skills they are utilizing to create harmony and joy in their home.

Breakout Afternoon Talk:

How to Create an Inspiring Home and Marriage for Our Children

Raising a family amidst the internet requires a new kind of strategy and a high level of intentionality. Ryan and January will present some practical details on how they design their domestic church and how they intentionally form their children. They will share a look behind the veil and will describe what it is like to build a business as a couple together, while also guiding their children as they pursue their unique and God-given call in their life.

Speakers – Pete & Tricia DeMaio

Breakout Afternoon Talk:

Choosing Love, Life, and Happiness

Allowing God's love, forgiveness, mercy, healing, and grace to truly transform our lives takes surrender. Pete and Tricia will share the story of their journey to discover God's plan for their lives, after 10 years of making many mistakes and being confused about dating, true love, and sexuality. It was the death of Pete's brother in 2003, followed by their subsequent surrender to God's plan, that allowed them to be open to seeing the gifts that God wanted to shower on them all along. They will share how their obedience to the treasures of the Catholic Church's teachings provided them with true freedom and abundant joy in their marriage and family life. They will identify 7 key areas for successfully living out our vocation as married couples and parents, and for rediscovering our mission to restore marriage and family as the centerpiece of a strong society, one love story at a time.
